ALLSTATE'S MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO COMPEL PLAINTIFFS'
DEPOSITIONS AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS

Date: September 3, 2015
Time: 10:00 a.m.
Dept.: Courtroom 3/4

Complaint Filed: December 12, 2014
Trial Date: January 12, 2016

1 PRELIMINARY STATEMENT RE LOCAL RULE 37-1

2 By now, the Court is familiar with Allstate's persistent but futile attempts to
3 meet and confer with Plaintiffs on discovery disputes. Plaintiffs failed to respond to 4 Allstate's meet and confer efforts before Plaintiffs' noticed depositions, failed to
5 appear for their noticed depositions, and subsequently failed to respond to Allstate's
6 meet and confer efforts after their non-appearances. Pursuant to Local Rule 37-2.4,
7 under such circumstances, the moving party must file a declaration from counsel
8 establishing that opposing counsel failed to confer in a timely manner in accordance 9 with Local Rule 37-1.

10 Here, Allstate attempted to contact Plaintiffs' counsel on three separate
11 occasions in an attempt to informally resolve this discovery dispute. Plaintiffs'
12 depositions were noticed for July 29, 2015, and July 30, 2015. Plaintiffs failed to 13 appear. Moreover, Allstate has not received any response from Plaintiffs or any 14 indication that they intend to reschedule and ultimately, appear for depositions.
15 Pursuant to Local Rules 37-2.4 and 37-4, this motion to compel is proper and 16 necessary.

17 I. INTRODUCTION

18 Like the other discovery motions that Allstate has already brought, this 19 motion to compel and for sanctions is based on Plaintiffs' refusal to cooperate and 20 participate in the discovery process. This motion is filed concurrently with a motion
21 for terminating sanctions based on Plaintiffs' failure to comply with the Court's July
22 15, 2015 Order, requiring Plaintiffs to respond to written discovery that was 23 propounded over three months ago. Also pending before the Court is a motion to 24 compel business records from a business owned by Plaintiff Matthew Poturich.

25 Now, Plaintiffs are attempting to evade their properly noticed depositions.
26 Plaintiffs failed to confirm their appearance before the depositions, failed to appear
27 at the depositions, and subsequently failed to meet and confer with Allstate to 28

1 reschedule their depositions. Therefore, Allstate requests that this Court order the 2 following:

- 3 (1) Plaintiffs must appear for their depositions on August 18 and 19, 2015;
- 4 (2) Plaintiffs shall pay sanctions to Allstate in the amount of $3,960.40 as a
5 result of Plaintiffs' failure to appear at their depositions and to comply 6 with court rules; and
- 7 (3) Alternatively, Plaintiffs are precluded from offering any testimony in 8 support of their claims and further precluded from offering any
9 documents requested by Allstate in the deposition notices that Plaintiffs
10 may otherwise offer in support of their claims.

11 II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

12 On June 23, 2015, Allstate contacted Plaintiffs' counsel to request Plaintiffs'
13 availability for depositions. (Declaration of Christina Ding ¶ 3, Ex. 1.) After
14 receiving no response, Allstate noticed the deposition of Plaintiff Matthew Poturich
15 for July 29, 2015, and of Plaintiff Teresa Poturich for July 30, 2015. (Ding Dec. ¶¶
16 4-5, Ex. 2-3.)

17 Again receiving complete radio silence, Allstate wrote to Plaintiffs' counsel
18 on July 21, 2015, requesting confirmation of Plaintiffs' appearance for their
19 upcoming depositions. (Ding Dec. ¶ 6, Ex. 4.) Three days later, Allstate wrote
20 again, requesting confirmation of Plaintiffs' appearance for their depositions. (Ding
21 Dec. ¶ 7, Ex. 5.)

22 On July 28, 2015 – less than 24 hours before the noticed deposition of 23 Plaintiff Matthew Poturich – an assistant for Plaintiffs' counsel advised Allstate that
24 counsel was ill and unavailable for the deposition the following day. (Ding Dec. ¶ 25 8, Ex. 6.) In a letter sent that same date, Allstate demanded a telephonic meet and 26 confer with Plaintiffs' counsel and that Plaintiffs agree to reschedule their 27 depositions for August 18 and 19, 2015. (Ding Dec. ¶ 9, Ex. 7.) Allstate further 28 demanded a response from Plaintiffs by July 30, 2015, in order to avoid another

1 motion to compel. (Id.) Plaintiffs failed to respond or appear at their depositions.
 2 (Ding Dec. ¶¶ 10-12, Ex. 8-9.) As of the filing of this motion, Plaintiffs have not
 3 responded to Allstate or indicated that they would appear for rescheduled
 4 depositions. (Ding Dec. ¶ 13.)

5 III. A MOTION TO COMPEL IS PROPER WHEN A PARTY FAILS TO
 6 APPEAR FOR A DEPOSITION

7 Allstate has a right to depose Plaintiffs without leave of Court. Fed. R. Civ.
 8 P. Rule 30. Allstate properly noticed Plaintiffs' depositions on June 26, 2015.
 9 (Ding Dec. ¶¶ 4-5, Ex. 2-3.) Plaintiffs failed to appear for their properly noticed
 10 depositions. (Ding Dec. ¶¶ 11-12, Ex. 8-9.)

11 A motion to compel is the appropriate remedy when a party fails to appear for 12 deposition. Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 37(a)(3). Because Plaintiffs failed to appear for 13 their depositions, Allstate has the right to seek a court order compelling compliance
 14 under Rule 37. Hyde & Drath v. Baker, 24 F.3d 1162, 1166–67 (9th Cir. 1994)
 15 (finding prejudice due to plaintiffs' repeated failure to appear at scheduled 16 depositions, which left defendants without crucial information and unable to 17 construct their defense); Henry v. Gill Industries, Inc., 983 F.2d 943, 947 (9th Cir.
 18 1993) (finding last-minute cancellation constitutes "failure to appear").

19 Not only have Plaintiffs failed to appear for their depositions, they failed to 20 subsequently respond to Allstate's meet and confer efforts to reschedule their 21 depositions. (Ding Dec. ¶¶ 9-10, Ex. 7.) Given the mediation cutoff date of August
 22 23, 2015, and the discovery cutoff date of October 2, 2015, Allstate respectfully
 23 requests that the Court compel Plaintiffs to appear for depositions on August 18 and 24 19, 2015.

25 IV. SANCTIONS ARE APPROPRIATE WHERE PARTIES FAIL TO APPEAR
 26 FOR DEPOSITIONS AND WHERE PLAINTIFFS' COUNSEL FAILED TO COOPERATE

27 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 37(d) allows the Court to impose
 28 sanctions against a party who fails to appear for deposition. Here, Allstate incurred

1 over $1,370.40 preparing for and attending Plaintiffs' depositions – at which they
 2 failed to appear. (Ding Dec. ¶ 14.) Therefore, Allstate requests that the Court
 3 impose monetary sanctions in the amount of $1,370.40 against Plaintiffs.

4 Local Rule 37-4 also permits the Court to impose sanctions where counsel has
 5 failed to comply with or cooperate in the meet and confer procedures under Local
 6 Rule 37-1. Cable & Computer Technology, Inc., supra, 175 F.R.D. at 650
 7 (sanctioning plaintiff's counsel for failing to comply with local rules requiring meet
 8 and confer efforts related to a discovery dispute). As already discussed above,
 9 Allstate attempted to meet and confer with Plaintiffs numerous times regarding their 10 depositions. (Ding Dec. ¶¶ 3-10.) Plaintiffs failed to confirm their appearances at 11 the depositions and also failed to respond to Allstate's effort to reschedule the 12 depositions after their non-appearances. (Id.)

13 To date, Allstate has received no response from Plaintiffs regarding this 14 dispute, thereby necessitating the present motion. As set forth in the Declaration of 15 Christina Ding, over four hours was spent researching and preparing this motion,
 16 including the supporting declaration and exhibits. (Ding Dec. ¶ 15.) It is 17 anticipated that, at a minimum, an additional three hours will be spent in connection
 18 with preparing a reply brief and handling the hearing on this matter. (Id.)
 19 Therefore, Allstate requests that it be awarded additional monetary sanctions in the 20 amount of $2,590.00, pursuant to Local Rule 37-1.

21 Beyond monetary sanctions, evidentiary sanctions are also appropriate where 22 a party fails to appear, testify and produce documents at their deposition. Hilao v.
 23 Estate of Marcos, F.3d 762, 764-765 (9th Cir. 1996) (“As a sanction for Appellants’
 24 failure to appear, testify, and produce documents at their depositions, the Court
 25 deemed established Plaintiffs’ factual allegations in their contempt motions, and 26 further found that those facts were substantiated by evidence produced by 27 Plaintiffs.”); Von Brimer v. Whirlpool Corp., 536 F.2d 838, 844 (9th Cir. 1976)
 28 (“[E]vidence was excluded, as subsection (b) (2)(B) allows . . .”).

Given Plaintiffs' failure to comply with the Court's July 15, 2015 Order requiring Plaintiffs to respond to written discovery, Allstate does not expect Plaintiffs will actually comply with an order from the Court requiring Plaintiffs to appear for depositions. Therefore, in lieu of ordering Plaintiffs to appear for depositions, Allstate requests that the Court exclude any and all testimony by Plaintiffs and further preclude Plaintiffs from relying upon documents that were requested by Allstate from Plaintiffs in their deposition notices.

V. CONCLUSION

Based on Plaintiffs' noncompliance as outlined above, Allstate respectfully requests that this Court order the following:

- (1) Plaintiffs must appear for their depositions on August 18 and 19, 2015;
- (2) Plaintiffs shall pay sanctions to Allstate in the amount of $3,960.40 as a result of Plaintiffs' failure to appear at their depositions and to comply with court rules; and
- (3) Alternatively, Plaintiffs are precluded from offering any testimony in support of their claims and further precluded from offering any documents requested by Allstate in the deposition notices that Plaintiffs may otherwise offer in support of their claims.
